SAN GREAL

CHAMPAGNE & CO

We adore Champagne!

Our drinking philosophy is grounded with firm feet in the wonderful Champagne district in France.

Here you find the wine makers who dare go their own way.

The ones who tend to their soil so its flavors are expressed in the sparkling gold your glass contains.

The ones who say Je t'aime to their grapes come night time.

We happily mediate the commitment and knowledge these amazing wine makers put into their sunkissed soil and grapes.

That true display of love for their craft results in fantastic, world-class and sometimes unexpected Champagne.

Mon Dieu, such artists!

SAN GREAL'S SEVEN COMMANDMENTS

1. GENEROSITY IS GOLDEN

Generosity in all shapes – absolutely! Here, you're incentivized to let love reign – compliments, warm gazes, champagne, hugs, ideas and a twisted humour.
We have room for it all and more

2. THE HERE AND NOW

We'd love for you to take photos and share your experience here on your socials, but please remember to put down your phone and grasp the opportunity to spend time in the present.

3. CURIOSITY IS A VIRTUE-ISH

We urge you not to make assumptions. Rather, ask us again and again and we'll deliver the in-depth knowledge you didn't know you wanted. Explore, navigate yourself through the menu and make new acquaintances. Imagine the amount of favorites you'd miss out on if you didn't...

4. PLAY PLAY PLAY PLAY

We find life to be too short to take oneself too seriously. Take some deep breaths, lower your shoulders and try and see if you can let go of some of the made up musts of the world. This too shall pass, as they say.

5. PLEASE LUST

Lust is what we're all about here. In every way. This is an oasis for your senses and it's completely understandable if you hardly can contain yourself from returning to our cup as it doth overflow.

6. RADICAL INCLUSION

The people who celebrate and flourish in courtesy are welcome to in all manners possible. Here, we welcome and respect all people. The world is a better place when you do that, we reckon.

7. .....

Leave room for the unknown, for people you have yet to meet, thoughts you have yet to think and feelings you have yet to feel.

From Champagne there are three appelations; one for champagne, one for red or white wine and one for rosé wine from Les Riceys. ONLY from Les Riceys that is! Elise Dechannes is one of very few allowed to produce still rosé wine in the Champagne region. Well worth to taste!

CHAMPAGNE TASTING
just order if you feel up to one tonight!

At San Greal you don't have to make decisions way ahead when you get in the spirit for a tasting. We serve you one "á la minute"! The only decision you have to make is which grapes you feel like tasting tonight, or you make it simple and let us choose.

There are seven grapes approved for producing champagne but the majority is made from three of them - Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier. Either 100% of one grape, a blend of two or of all three.

All of our tastings include three glasses of sparkling glory, three cheeses and fresh sourdough bread baked daily from our neighborhood Patisserie. All put together on our tasting trays alongside a small guide to the specific tasting we serve you. We'll happily guide you through what tasting will fit your evening the best and if we have the time to, we'll gladly stay and warmly discuss what you're being served.

Tasting of our champagnes 555:-

Which grapes do you prefer in your tasting?
Ask us and we will happily guide you to the best tasting for YOU!

- A glass of each of Chardonnay, Pinot Noir & Pinot
- Is the driest champagne always the tastiest?
- Three glasses of our favourites
- Anything special you fancy trying from our glass list?

Tasting of sparkling wines & champagne 495:-

In this tasting we serve you cava, crémant and champagne together with cheese and bread.
Either we tell you which glass is which or you taste and see if your tastebuds will detect the correct ones.

TASTING of RATAFIA de CHAMPAGNE

Enjoy a tasting of our three Ratafia de Champagne together with cheese and truffles. 295:-

Our champagne growers always strive to get the best juice from the very best grapes. Often the grapes are only pressed once to make a cuvée, which is valued as the very best grape juice. But what happens to the leftovers? Some producers who make larger amounts of champagne press their grapes twice. But others - they make RATAFIA!

Ratafia de Champagne is a sweeter wine often made out of the last ten percent grape juice not allowed to be bottled into champagne. The third press is actually not permitted to use for champagne making. The fermentation is instead halted by adding alcohol. Often with eau-de-vie, a liqueur destilled from grape wine, and as in this case, also a rest from the champage production.

But the Ratafia is also supposed to taste great, not just become a fortified wine (18-20%). Often the juice rests in oak barrels, sometimes in steel barrels. Other times grape skin is addeed for colour and tannins and some times herbs are also there to balance the tastes.

Henriet-Bazin Ratafia de Champagne 2018

50% Pinot Noir / 50% Chardonnay
Produced from the second press of the highest quailty grapes.
All grapes are from 2018 as the Henriet-Bazin Ratafia de Champagne always comes from a specific vintage and from Premier Cru villages. The precious drops are placed in oak barrels for some months before being blended with the growers own eau-de-vie. Round spicy taste, sweet and with a slight butterscotch taste and hints of hazel nut.

Mouzon-Leroux & Fils L'Exaltant Ratafia

100% Pinot Noir
Juice from the best selected Pinot Noir grapes from the Grand Cru village Verzy. The skins from the grapes have macerated with the grape juice for 24 hours to give the juice its beautiful red hue. Fruity with a somewhat herbal taste and with a hint of the maceration from the grape skins.

Henri Giraud Solera Ratafia Champenois

90% Pinot Noir, 10% Chardonnay
Made from the second press of the very best grapes from Grand Cru villages. Matured according to the Solera method where several vintages are fermented in the same barrels, in this case oak barrels. This Solera is today over 30 years old! The first harvest was the one from 1990 and in the bottle we serve you from today harvests up until 2016 are included.
Mature, silky smooth with tastes of sweet apples, roasted almonds, burnt butter, honey and plums.
