

Ragazzi Wine and Pasta is located on land belonging to the Gadigal people of the Eora nation.

We acknowledge the Traditional Custodians and pay respect to Elders past, present and emerging, of the lands on which we work and live, and further acknowledge and pay respect to the Traditional Owners of the land.

Ragazzi is a place to enjoy handmade pasta and handmade wine.

Our Executive Chef Scott McComas-Williams says that each of the hundred or so pasta shapes that the Italians use has its own specific purpose. That each one will work with a particular sauce better than any other shape. Not only that, but each shape is a product of the culture of its place of origin. Places lucky enough to inherit tomatoes from South America created tubular shapes to catch the bright red sauce; wealthier towns used eggs in their recipe because they could.

It got us thinking about Italian wine and how out of all the multitudes of different landscapes that dot the country, some were simply the absolute best pairing for one of the hundreds of native Italian grape varieties. Nebbiolo and Barolo, Brunello and Montalcino. Fiano and Avellino. And also how exciting the whole ridiculous complexity of Italian wine really is, and how fun.

Much like the kitchen, if the winemakers of Italy want to get the very best out of these magical pairings, they need to let the grapes and the places work together with minimal interference and with the utmost respect to the culture and traditions of their region. Our way of thinking is they already have the best ingredients, so the less that they do in the winery the better. That's why we've chosen the wines that we have. They are traditional, delicious and handmade.
