CELLAR LIST

Woodstockholm is a small restaurant and the idea is not to have the most luxurious list. We search hard and travel a lot to get the entry level wines from great producers and top wines of overseen regions, some classics, some more chic charming natural juices and old school classics that haven't changed since wine was only wine and cover crops occupied the minds and not pesticides. Through our own import we keep some wines that are unique for our whereabouts. The pricing is flat also on the the allocated rare bottles that are open for those with the contacts to speculate with. At the moment you find broader selections of peppery light north western spanish reds, rustic red burgundy, future unicorn dry Chenins of the Loire and of course the divine white burgundians.
