

“Life is too short to drink bad wine.”

It’s a common line spoken amongst my colleagues in the wine industry and for very good reason. Initially, it was my motto to justify my insatiable appetite for great wine, but it now serves as an excuse to celebrate the first drop in far too long (I recently became a Mum!).

Having worked in vineyards and wineries across Europe, I understand first-hand how they operate. I believe in promoting well-made wines where vineyards are respected and not bombarded by chemicals that make production easier. The producers we support at The Gidley make the best from what they have, by respecting vintage, nature, sustainability and biodiversity.

Most of the winemakers I admire apply organic and biodynamic principles in the vineyard and in the winery. Personally, I don’t mind not seeing the certification printed on the bottle. What is most important is respecting the principles of sustainable winemaking.

There is a focus on female winemakers with many featured on this list. I have nothing against men, but being a woman who has worked in most aspects of the wine industry over the years, I feel the urge to do something to acknowledge and celebrate the fantastic global community of women working in the wine industry alongside me.

The wines you will find on this menu are extremely well-made, created with respect for nature and the bodies of those who consume it. We showcase classic Australian wines as well as classic grape varieties from classic wine regions from around the world. We are living in an exciting era where experimentation is at the centre of winemaking. New styles are created, grape varieties are being planted in remote areas foreign far from their known origins and new winemaking philosophies are taking over the planet. I wanted to support the new wave of such winemaking while paying tribute to those classic drops that have been satisfying wine lover’s palates for decades – including a feature on the famed Australian grape, Shiraz!

Settle in. Enjoy the atmosphere. Savour the company of those you are with. Crack open an outstanding bottle of wine. Because after all, life is too short to drink bad wine.

PREMIUM WINE UNDER CORAVIN BY THE GLASS

WHITE

---	------------------	----

What a great juice this wine is! The balance between crunchy green apples and honey notes is just incredible. A great expression of organic farming that reflects in the winemaking, leaving the terroir speaking for itself. Great accompaniment with the pork terrine and the prawn cocktail.

2008 Thomas Wines 'Braemore'	Hunter Valley, NSW	42
------------------------------	--------------------	----

Often referred to as Australia's unique gift to the world of wine, Semillon is definitely the signature variety of the Hunter Valley. Historically, most Hunter Semillon was bottle aged before release. The very best Hunter Semillons undergo an amazing transformation into a gloriously toasty, complex wine, maintaining freshness and vibrancy with 10+ years bottle age.

RED

- 2014 Domaine Elian Da Ros 'Clos Baquey' Bordeaux Blend Marmandais, France 44
The winery is in the Marmande district, in the southwest of France, near Bordeaux. This complex red wine is produced from merlot, cabernet franc, cabernet sauvignon and abouriou grapes which are harvested by hand. It is a medium bodied wine with subtle tannin structure, elegant notes of red fruit married with a discrete oaky flavour. This wine calls for the English Cut.
- 2017 Cantina Crociani Vino Nobile di Montepulciano Tuscany, Italy 27
Within the oldest wines from Italy, Montepulciano is made predominantly by Sangiovese (called Prugnolo Gentile in this area), Mammolo and Canaiolo. The wine is a true expression Sangiovese and Susanna's approach is elegant and yet straight to the point. 2017, being a warmer vintage, offers riper and a more generous style of Nobile di Montepulciano. Drink it with the roast!
- 2017 Domaine Bois De Boursan Châteauneuf- du-Pape Rhône Valley, France 43
This is one of the few growers who stick resolutely to traditional methods and his wines stand out for their wonderfully classical frame and style. You will find lavender, garrigue, stones, ash and fresh, sappy fruit. Bois de Boursan wines are very aromatic, with tremendous texture and energy. This is the Burgundy of the South, so enjoy it with anything you like!
- 2015 Alejandro Fernandez 'Pesquera Crianza' Ribera del Duero, Spain 29
The unfiltered wine coming from this historical estate is kept and aged in a mix of American, French and Spanish oak barrels made by the finest coppers. This results in wines full of character, with waves of bright red and black cherry fruits with fine oak spices. Soft tannin structure with an elegant, long finish. Great with all meats for those who like a balanced yet powerful wine.
- 2020 Jasper Hill 'Georgia and Friends' Shiraz Heathcote, VIC 43
Extreme drought preceding the 2020 harvest resulted in a very small vintage of excellent Georgia's Paddock fruit, which was complemented with the addition of some purchased Heathcote "friends" grapes to produce this blend. Lifted aromas and flavours of complex, mixed ripe red and black berries with typical spiciness. If you can call a 15% alcohol wine-elegant, the resulting wine has the expected magenta colour, with the normal fabulous balance between high acidity and supple tannins.
- 2016 Henschke 'Mount Edelstone' Shiraz Eden Valley, SA 82
Henschke doesn't really need an introduction! What I love about them is that they are the perfect example that biodynamic and organic principles don't necessarily mean funky. Pru has been practising biodynamic growing for decades now and the result is just one of the most iconic brands of all. Mount Edelstone is a single vineyard Shiraz made from ancient vines. You have to try it!

THE GIDLEY FEATURE GRAPE ~ SHIRAZ ~

Our feature page showcases how a single wine can change with each vintage and this edition of our award-winning list now highlights four winemakers who make vino from the same grape variety, Shiraz.

Shiraz, Australia's greatest grape variety, is the wine that put Australia on the world wine map. The dusty soils of the Barossa Valley in South Australia has set the standard of winemaking since placing this country on the world wine map decades ago. However, it's not the only region making exceptional Shiraz.

Here are four wine famous Australian wine regions where great Shiraz is made, represented by some of the best producers in Australia.

I. THOMAS WINES 'KISS' - HUNTER VALLEY, NSW

Andrew 'Thommo' Thomas' passion for wine and drive to produce the best is well known. His wines are a product of his pursuit of excellence. Thommo started his own label in 1997, with the singular focus to specialise in single vineyard Hunter Valley Semillon and Shiraz. Over the years he has formed alliances with an impressive folio of local growers who own and operate some of the Hunter Valley's most distinguished sites, producing world class, uniquely regional styles. Each wine showcases its unique vineyard signature and expresses a real sense of place.

Kiss is the benchmark Shiraz for Thomas Wines. Grown on tough clay/loam soils of the Pokolbin Estate, these naturally low cropping vines consistently produce fruit with exceptional depth and concentration. Sitting in the fuller end of the medium bodied spectrum, it is flush with concentrated dark blue fruits, savoury spice and a long, satiny tannin structure. The French oak maturation is still evident in its youth, but also provides an additional structural complexity the primary fruit intensity demands.

2. YARRA YERING 'DRY RED NO. 2' - YARRA VALLEY, VIC

Yarra Yering is one of the most iconic wineries in the southern hemisphere, founded by Dr Bailey Carrudus in 1969, one of three pioneers of Yarra Valley wine region. Sarah Crowe is the current chief winemaker and since she landed at Yarra Yering in 2013, the wines have got better and better. Awarded 'Best Winemaker of the Year, 2017', she was the first woman to receive this prestigious award.

Dry Red No. 2 is a classic blend from the Northern Rhone region, where a little touch of Vioginer, Marsanne and Mataro is added to the Syrah to lift and highlight the aromatics. A wine style that has always been blended for perfume, texture and spice, this wine's fragrance is enhanced by the Viognier, lent texture and volume to the palate by the Marsanne and complemented by the Mataro's floral notes and spice. Primary fruit leads to savoury graphite and white pepper, underpinned by background stalkiness and concentrated meatiness.

3. KAESLER 'ALTE REBEN' - BAROSSA VALLEY, SA

South Australia is a 'Phylloxera Free' area, which means it is free from the deadly disease which destroyed most vineyards around the world during the second half of the 1800s and early 1900s. This is why we find South Australia vineyards over 100, and even 150 years old.

The Alte Reben Shiraz comes from a single plot vineyard planted in 1899 in Marananga. This vineyard has a unique soil type, quite different to most of the Kaesler vineyards. Not too many can boast custody of nine acres of Shiraz planted three centuries ago. It's a national treasure and not necessarily a Barossa Valley Shiraz as you know it! An intriguing wine, it makes you want to savour more. With a ripe spectrum of dark red fruits and warm chocolate souffle, this wine is rich, elegant, demanding and rewarding. Fantastic round and generous tannin structure stream all the way through.

4. CLARENDON HILLS 'ONKAPARINGA VINEYARD' - MCLAREN VALE, SA

Planted in 1928, this vineyard is located in the most highly elevated regions of Blewitt Springs. The Syrah patch faces west and edges a gorge with a 75 metre cliff face, allowing cool fresh air to pass through the vines at night, mitigating the hot climate. Onkaparinga is an indigenous/aboriginal term for the local region.

The soil composition is special as its top- soil is riddled with buck shot like, rusty orange ironstone pebbles. This 6-foot deep top-soil sits atop geology that dates a globally unique 1600 million years old. Being labelled as Syrah, this wine shows French characteristics, which means drier, spicier and more pronounced aromatics. It is layered and densely compacted. Very finely polished and almost oily like in its viscosity, with hints of mallee roasted rib eye, tobacco, violets, sweet liquorice, dark chocolate, creamy berries, black cardamom, charcuterie and black currant notes. It is a very complex wine with many characteristics to show.
