In the 1960's, when Bern Laxer began collecting wine he had one goal to offer guests the opportunity to drink any kind of wine, from anywhere in the world at a reasonable price.

Today, that is still our goal at Bern's Steak House.

Our extraordinary wine collection is one of the largest in the world and has over 6,500 different labels.

Should you need assistance in selecting a wine to complement your dinner or budget, our Sommeliers can expertly guide you through the list.

Additionally, since we receive new wines almost daily that are not included here, please review our wines by-the-glass list which features nearly 120 selections.

After dinner be sure to tour our working wine cellar within the kitchen.

We hope you enjoy your unique dining experience at Bern's Steak House.

Oregon			One of the great wines of Alsace. In the last 30 years it has become better know by its Italian name, Pinot Grigio. America is now producing some fine examples of this food friendly grape. Stylistically it can be broad and mouth filling, like they do in Alsace, or composed of fruity flavors, like Italy.

Sauvignon Blanc
Sauvignon Blanc is generally a food wine with no residual sugar. Whereas some Chenin Blancs and White Rieslings, for example, may be crafted a bit too sweet to properly accompany some foods, Sauvignon Blanc rarely is—it will almost always be suitable at the dining table. Sauvignon Blanc will be pale to medium yellow. It sometimes has a vegetative bouquet usually fresh grass, weedy, herbaceous, or spicy. Another style displays a fruity aroma. Flavors can be refreshingly crisp—again, grassy, weedy, earthy, herbaceous or they may reveal a melon taste. Sauvignon Blanc is often aged in oak for a rich, mellower, more complex, and slightly vanilla flavor. Acid will usually vary but be very adequate. Body is usually full, and finish will be long. At best, this wine is soft, elegant, and very well balanced. Like Chardonnay, the best Sauvignon Blanc seems to mellow and round out with a couple of years of bottle age.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON
Cabernet ages very well and often requires decanting. You may want to decant a young Cabernet to allow it a quick aging that the airing will give. It will, at its prime, produce a rich brick-red color of great clarity. Its nose will be beautiful and complex, and its bouquet magnificent. Aromas will be spicy, cedary, minty, with a hint of green peppers. Flavors will be buttery rich and elegant, and the finish long and satisfying on the palate.

1314	Chateau Ste. Michelle Cabernet 2004, Cold Creek Vineyard, Columbia Valley	130.00		Most often, Charbono is dark-colored, heavy, coarse, and not fruity, but rich in flavor nuances when it is young. Although you don't have to age Charbono, it improves immensely with bottle age, and will soften and show its fruit and character when its tannins settle out. It's not unlike Barbera, but is usually heavier in body.
6887	Chateau Ste. Michelle Cabernet 1980, Washington	tenth 125.00		When it is fully aged, it will exhibit an elegance and a somewhat spicy rich-ness all its own. This may take five, ten, or fifteen years—or more in very cool cellars—but if you've tasted some fine aged bottles, you'll know that this often powerful wine is worth the wait.

Sangiovese was unheard of in California until the mid 1990s. This is the main red grape of Chianti. The climate and soils of California are well suited for Sangiovese and we are beginning to see some world class Sangiovese's being produced.

Merlot's flavors can be lush, with a soft, glycerin-rich, velvetiness that is mouth-filling. Merlot also produces wines that usually are soft much sooner than Cabernet Sauvignon. Tannins are softer and this may make them more enjoyable at a younger age. Merlot will definitely improve with age, and in many instances almost as long as a good Cabernet Sauvignon.
