CHAMPAGNE

"I drink it when I am happy and when I am sad.

Sometimes I drink it when I'm alone.

When I have company, I consider it obligatory.

I trifle with it when I am not hungry and drink it when I am.

Otherwise, I never touch it unless I am thirsty."

Madame Lilly Bollinger

Burgundy

BURGUNDY WHITE WINE

"She gets to keep the chalet and the Rolls, I want the Montrachet"

Anonymous (as quoted in Forbes Magazine)

Probably the most versatile of all the white grapes, it can be grown in most climatic conditions. Here, in Burgundy, it is at its best - where wines from Chablis tend to be unoaked, crisp, yellow apple, passion fruit and high acidity. The Grand Cru will have been aged in oak. The Mâconnais Chardonnay seldom sees any oak, however, the Côte d'Or Chardonnays are mainly produced with oak. These tend to have flavours of lemon curd, vanilla and have a creamy texture.

SOUTHERN RHÔNE RED

"Better is old wine than new, old friends like-wise"

Charles Kingsley

Most or if not all the reds coming out of Southern Rhone are blends consisting of mainly Grenache, Syrah and Mourvèdre. The most famous wine from Southern Rhône, Châteauneuf-du-Pape can be made from as many as 19 different grape varieties. Other notable grape varieties include Carignan, Cinsault and Bandol.

LARGE FORMATS

Magnums are perfect for parties. Wine in larger bottles tends to age better and more slowly, and therefore consistently tastes better than wine from normal-size bottles. The proportion of exposed wine to unexposed decreases significantly as bottle size increases; hence, wine in larger bottles has less exposure to the effects of oxygen.

On Water, there is Bacteria"*
