Port

Dalva, 1995 Colbita	16/111	Port is classified as a fortified wine, meaning that a clear grape spirit (usually aguardente, a type of brandy) is added during fermentation. This stops the fermentation process and preserves most of the grapes' natural sugars, giving Port its signature sweet flavor profile. Then, the Port is put into large oak casks for approximately 18 months, after which it is assessed as to a specific style of Port wine.

The heating creates a wine with fascinating flavors of roasted nuts, stewed fruit, caramel, and toffee.

-NV-	Ayala, Brut Majeur, Aÿ	105.	Ruinart, Blanc de Blancs: A very appealing and satisfying style that fully captures the elegance and poise of chardonnay. The aromas here are all based around lemons, grapefruit, honey, fresh floral notes, stone fruits and toasty autolysis – which is somewhat of a signature for this Champagne. The palate delivers a ripe, flavorsome impression of peach custard and lemon crème brûlée. The sauvignon blanc grape is produced in a variety of styles ranging from the dry, crisp, and racy- to the juicy, rich (with the addition of Semillon). Most of these selections see no oak in the winemaking process. Some fruits that shine through are lemon, apple, grapefruit, and kiwi.

*Capture winemaker notes:
The Tradition Sauvignon Blanc elevates the purity of the variety through stainless steel fermentation and ten months of sur lie aging. The result is an expression of bright citrus such as lime peel, white stonefruit, and green apple fragrances. Our vineyards highlight the ideal characteristics of Sauvignon Blanc with mineral texture, brilliant acidity, and a fresh finish.*

From a sharp and crisp Kabinett to the luxurious richness of an eiswein, Rieslings truly run the gamut of flavors. German Style tend to be off-dry, with low alcohol.

Albariño is a high acid grape that produces lighter body wines. Often brimming with coastal flavors of minerality and sea salt, albariño is a natural match for oysters on the half shell. Those produced in the US are more rare and exhibit fuller body and greater richness.

If you're interested in tasting a fuller bodied white other than chardonnay, you may want to try a roussanne or viognier. Indigenous to France's Rhone Valley, viognier offers flavors of dried apricot, peach, & honey.

CHARDONNAY

Burgundy, France

2021	Billaud-Simon, Les Vaillons , Chablis, 1 ^{er} Cru	166.	Chablis is amazing. Few wines around the world elicit the visceral reaction that the word "Chablis" creates. There is a purity of fruit and laser-like acidity that runs through these wines. Chablis always has loads of structure and in many cases, they can age for years. Their salinity and zestiness make for a marvelous palate cleanser or can act as the perfect complement to a plate of briny oysters.

Pinot noir is often thought of as the most complex red wine grape. It's flavors can range from bright cherry and strawberry in the Carneros and Russian River regions, to the dark, damp, mushroom laced earthiness of Burgundy. It possesses an intrinsic softness that allows more subtle flavors in cuisine to shine through.

Oregon pinots possess a silky earthiness that is rivaled mostly by wines from Burgundy, the origin of pinot noir. This may be attributed to the heavier rainfall and cooler climate in the northwestern U.S, as well as the additional sunlight throughout the growing season.

Modern wine-making techniques in the villages of Barolo and Barbaresco often produce full bodied, fleshy, earthy, red wines made from 100% of the Nebbiolo grape.

Unmoved by New World stylistic influences, traditionalist Elio Sandri makes wine with minimal intervention, believing the natural process best reflects their unique terroir. Grapes are hand-picked at night, native-yeast fermented slowly and gently over months in the cold underground cellar, minimizing extraction first in Stainless tanks, then in concrete tanks before aging in neutral wooden Botte tanks using no new oak. While the Barolo is whole-cluster fermented, Sandri's only modern winemaking acquiescence is to destem the Nebbiolo and Dolcetto. The very limited Barolos are fermented directly in decades-old wood Botte tanks, then bottle aged for many years, exceeding the 3 year bottle age requirement for Barolo.

"Roberto Conterno needs no introduction; his purchase of the Nervi estate in 2018 seemingly removed the ceiling for the already-impressive wines, and Conterno is dedicated to elevating the quality to his impeccable standards in Barolo. Early returns are impressive, as the traditionally rustic wines have a new hue of approachability while staying true to the region's structure and age-ability."

Wines produced from the sangiovese grape tend to be medium in body and fresh with higher acids to balance the fruit. The acidity in the wine make it lively and super food friendly especially to cut through with the rich sauces.

The original "Super Tuscan" wine was Sassicaia. In 1970, the Marchesi Incisa della Rocchetta went against tradition and added cabernet sauvignon to sangiovese. This was illegal at the time as the Italian government strictly regulated all wine production. Because this wine didn't fit into their strict laws, it was deemed a vino di tavola, or Table Wine. Decades later, these "Super Tuscan" wines are among the most prized in Italy.

Native to Greece, Xinomavro is widely regarded the finest red wine of the country. Its name literally means "acid black", and attains fullest potential in the country's northwest region of Naoussa. These single varietal bottlings of Xinomavro (blending is not allowed here) are often compared to the fine Barolos of Italy for their structure, finesse and age-worthiness.

Chateauneuf-du-Pape is a name that even novices have heard of. But do you know where the iconic name came from? In the 14th Century, Pope Clement V, former Archbishop of Bordeaux, relocated the papacy to Avignon in the Southern Rhone Valley. The name literally translates to "The Pope's new castle".

Torbreck's The Struie boasts an opulent, nearly creamy mouthfeel, ample weight and richness and a lingering, supple finish. Those structural elements all guide notes of camphor, grilled beef, plummy fruit, vanilla and cola easily across the full-bodied palate, making this a wine that's deceptively easy to drink, despite its concentration and complexity.
-Robert Parker

The vineyards of Côte-Rôtie are unique because of their vertical slopes and their stone walls. Côte-Rôtie can be rendered in English as "the roasted slope" and refers to the long hours of sunlight that these steep slopes receive.

2021	Switchback Ridge, Peterson Family Vineyard , Napa	165.

Petite Sirah was discovered in the 1880s by Dr. Francois Durif, a French nurseryman, who named the grape after himself. (Some producers still call petite sirah by its original name, Durif, mainly in Australia). Petite Sirah produces a deeply concentrated and tannic wine with notes of pepper, currants, and baked fruit.

Malbec is also one of the five varietals used in Bordeaux blends. It has a dense structure with hints of cherries, tea leaves, cocoa, dark chocolate, and earth. Argentina's high elevation, with a hot, and dry climate is particularly kind to malbec, often producing wines with more intensity and grip.

Ancient Peaks, Oyster Ridge, appropriately named for the calcareous soil that literally has white oyster fossils pouring out of the soil makes for an incredible unique flavor profile and complexity rarely seen anywhere.

Kenzo Estates 'Rindo' leads with hints of dark plum, toasted walnut, slate, crushed stone, vanilla black pepper, tree sap, strawberry preserves on the nose followed with dense, rich, dark, savory tannin, subtle dryness on the pallet. All together making this an unforgettable wine.

Cariad, is a Bordeaux-style red wine blended from three outstanding vineyards by David Abreu. Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Cabernet Franc from Madrona Ranch are blended with small amounts of fruit from Thorevilos and Howell Mountain, producing a wine of enormous proportions with a classic structure that is the Colgin hallmark.

“For me harmony between wine and food results obvious and boring, though I can appreciate it and certainly understand it. Isn't it more interesting too have a mouth clash of dissonance of two great tastes that try to convince you who is better? This experience for me has more value than the monotonous perfect match that seems to work very well for toddlers”

The 2016 The Bard is very deep purple-black in color and sashays out of the glass with strikingly beautiful violets, warm cassis, star anise and chocolate mint notes with hints of wood smoke, tobacco and kirsch, with blackberry compote at the core. Full, muscular and built like a brick house with layer upon layer of black, blue and red fruits, it finishes very long and savory.
-Robert Parker

2016 Scarecrow: Made from 100% Cabernet Sauvignon from very old, dry farmed vines, its deep purple color is followed by a heavenly perfume of blueberries, spring flowers, lead pencil, exotic spices, and graphite. With full body, ultra-fine tannins, and no hard edges, it's a wine of incredible elegance paired with remarkable intensity, and it's rare to find a wine that marries both so effortlessly.
-Jeb Dunnuck

Quilceda Creek wine-maker Paul Golithizin describes the wine's texture as luxurious, with layer upon layer of rich and concentrated crème de cassis, blackberry and black plum fruit coating the palate with a deep, memorable impact. Nuances of violet, anise, leather, dark chocolate, black truffle and minerals can also be found in this incredibly pure wine of great power and finesse.
