

LAST CALL - ONE BOTTLE EACH

FIZZ

Ca d'Gal, Lumine, Moscato 2019	£39
Vouette & Sorbee, Fidele, Champagne NV	£153

WHITE

Rolly Gassmann, Riesling, Alsace 2016	£48
Rolly Gassmann, Sylvaner, Alsace 2017	£48
Jean Philippe Fichet, Bourgogne Blanc 2018	£65
Eleni & Edouard Vocoret, En Boucheron, Chablis 2018	£71
Domaine Perrin, Combe Bazin, Saint-Romain 2016	£74
Idlewild, The Bee, North Coast 2017	£85
Clemens Strobl, Rosenberg Riesling, Wagram, Austria 2016	£130
Pierre-Yves Colin-Morey, Le Banc, Saint-Aubin 2017	£159
Hubert Lamy, Les Tremblots, Puligny Montrachet 2015	£165
Guffens-Heynen, Tris des Hautes des Vignes, Pouilly-Fuisse 2014	£185
Pierre Morey, Les Tessonns, Meursault 2015	£195
Domaine William Fevre, Valmur, Grand Cru Chablis 2011	£195
Domaine des Comtes Lafon, Meursault Perrieres 1990	£737

RED

I Custodi, Aetnus, Etna Rosso 2010	£60
Domaine Follin-Arbelet, Aloxe-Corton 2016	£94
Chateau Sociando-Mallet, Haut-Medoc 2007	£95
Eric Solomon, Laurel, Priorat 2011	£120
Domaine Francois Merlin, Cote-Rotie 2016	£125
Bernard & Thierry Glantenay, Les Caillerets, Premier Cru Volnay 2009	£140
Chateau Lafon-Rochet, St-Estephe 1998	£149
Turley, Dragon Vineyard Zinfandel, Napa Valley 2017	£170
Domaine Bachelet, Gevrey-Chambertin 2011	£185
Chateau d'Issan, Margaux 1988	£189
Paul Jaboulet Aine, Les Cedres, Chateaneuf-du-Pape 1990	£210
Verite, La Muse, Sonoma County 2007	£395

FORTIFIED

Grahams, Malvedos Vintage Port 1979	£192
Cockburns, Vintage Port 1963	£350

THE CELLAR LIST

WELCOME

Our cellar has been home to some special bottles over the years. Overleaf are some current favourites and - on the back page - you will find a selection of single bottles we have bought at auctions and from private cellars over the years.

Happy browsing!

WHITE

Joh Jos Prum, Graacher Himmelreich Riesling Spätlese, Mosel '15 £110

Although it may be on the sweeter end of the spectrum with luscious tropical & floral notes, Riesling's naturally searing acidity means this wine never feels cloying and can even be a truly special accompaniment to savoury courses.

Marc Colin, En Remilly, Saint Aubin Premier Cru '10 £120

Off the main drag of big names & bigger price tags, St Aubin offers that rarest of things, good value Burgundy! Wines from this village also tend to have pretty flashy acidity that holds this wine together nicely at eleven years of age...

Domaine Leflaive, Mâcon-Verzé '13 £130

... Further south, the rolling hills around Verzé produce wines with a deep, yellow-fruit note of ripeness without becoming flabby. This wine has broadened out with a touch of age into something truly regal.

Pic & Chapoutier, Payrolles, Saint Peray '12 £150

A collaboration between one of France's greatest living chefs and the Rhone's preeminent house. Containing 100% Marsanne, this wine has a mixture of honey pear & citrus fruits.

Domaine Comtes Lafon, Meursault '15 £450

When it comes to Chardonnay, all roads eventually lead back to Meursault. A world class producer in an excellent vintage. Full marks all around!

RED

Barons de Rothschild, Legende, Pauillac '11 £100

Walks the walk at a considerably less terrifying price point. All the leather, black fruit & graphite you would expect from the region from a house that clearly knows what they're doing.

Bruno Giacosa, Nebbiolo d'Alba, Langhe '11 £105

The term 'Baby Barolo' almost seems to do this wine a dis-service. Classic orange peel and roses with electric acidity & brilliant tannin. In Bruno's hands, even the lowliest appellation is elevated to the stars.

Pahi, Escarpment Pinot Noir, Martinborough '14 £110

A stately rendition of this grape with dark, earthy sap & power to truly rival it's French cousins. This cuvee in particular has added lift from the addition of whole bunches into the ferment.

Passopisciaro, Passorosso Etna Rosso, Sicily '14 £115

A tongue-twister of a wine that marries the grapes from several of Mt Etna's best contradas into one brilliant whole. Maraschino & sandalwood. A crucial accompaniment for a properly fatty pork chop.

Cirillo, 1850 Ancestor Vine Grenache, Barossa Valley '13 £125

The world's oldest plantings of Grenache provide truly awesome depth with herbal notes of rosemary & red earth alongside powerful ripe red fruits. This is Australian wine at the height of its powers.

Château L'Eglise-Clinet, La Petite Eglise, Pomerol '12 £130

It feels cruel to label this a second wine simply because of it's grand sibling. This stands firmly on it's own two feet with a dense core of red fruits & magnificent ripe, velvet-y tannins.

Domaine les Caillou, Les Safres, Châteauneuf du Pape '16 £130

This cuvee is made predominantly from old vine Grenache resulting in a smoother, silkier style of Châteauneuf with a smokey, almost bacon-like note on the nose. A big, statement of a wine that loves heftier cuts of red meat.

Il Poggione, Brunello di Montalcino '09 £140

With access to some of the region's finest vineyards along with generations of wine-making know-how, even in a challenging vintage such as the heat-wave of '09, this bastion of Brunello produces incredible wines.

Raymond Usseglio, Cuvee Imperiale, Châteauneuf du Pape '16 £165

Mostly from Grenache vines planted at the dawn of the previous century! This wine has a darker, more brooding character, more black tea, plum & rose petal with a black rock minerality. Give this one a good decanting!

Frescobaldi, Castelgiocondo, Brunello di Montalcino '10 £175

In opposition to the rather difficult 2009 vintage, 2010 has been hailed as a once in a generation vintage where every element lined up perfectly. Stylistically more in the baking spice & dried red cherry camp.

Château Beychevelle, Saint-Julien '15 £295

Roughly an even blend of Cabernet Sauvignon & Merlot with splashes of Petit Verdot & Cabernet Franc rounding out the blend. A big, dark, brooding wine with chewy tannins and black rock minerality. There's some lavish new oak in use here but it compliments rather than obscures the fruit.