

SALTA

1700-3111M ASL 2300 Hectares

Argentina's northernmost region features extreme wine making with some of the highest vineyards in the world. Wines are premium, powerful and full-bodied.

MENDOZA

650-1500m ASL 144000 Hectares

The largest and most famous of Argentina's regions is located at the foothills of the Andes. Eastern regions include Maipú with rich and ripe styles, Luján de Cuyo with deep soil producing the most premium wines in the country, Perdiel with rocky terroir and Lunlunta with ancient vines and leafy soil. To the west, Vistalba and las Compuertas with juicy and intense wines and Uco Valley with a cooler climate producing spicy, floral and elegant wines.

PATAGONIA

250-400m ASL 6200 Hectares

This area sees harsh winters and cool summers as well as vineyards ranging from 300-500 meters above sea level, conditions ideal for elegant, pure, textured wines. The wines have a wonderful balance of acidity and purity.
