DUDELL'S WINE FLIGHT

Many wine collectors consider the best white wines of the world are Chardonnay of Burgundy, produced in the three communes in the south part of Cote d'Or – Meursault, Puligny-Montrachet and Chassagne-Montrachet. Among the three, which is the best? How do they differ?

2016 vintage

Charming, elegant wines, accessible yet with good structure; frost reduced yields in some vineyards. These generally possess a fresher, more classic feel in comparison to their 2015 forebears, while the very best will come close to matching those of 2014.

Meursault

Domaine Tessier, 1er Cru, Le Poruzot Dessus

Distinctive fatness, richness and nutty-butteriness, as opposed to the more peachy and flower flavors of the two communes to the south.

Puligny-Montrachet

Alain Chavy, 1er Cru, Les Pucelles

It exhibits structure and raciness; can be “masculine” at times - a character missing in the other two communes.

Chassagne-Montrachet

Thomas Morey, 1er Cru, Morgeot

Full and firm, while less definitive perhaps than those of Puligny, but have a better grasp than the majority of Meursaults.

788 per person (100ml each)

CHÂTEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD

Sine 1853, The Rothschild family has been motivated by constant ambition - to make the world's finest wines - at its staple estate - Château Mouton Rothschild. The property, a First Growth located in Pauillac, Bordeaux, is regarded as some of the world's greatest.

No producer captures the imagination or attention of wine collectors more than Château Mouton Rothschild with their annual artist series of labels. Baron Philippe de Rothschild conceived the original idea of crowning the Mouton label with an original work created by an important contemporary artist.

By 1946, this became a permanent and significant aspect of the château's image and this tradition has continued with labels created by some of the world's leading artists which include Chagall, Dali, Picasso, Miro, Warhol, and more recently, Xu Lei, Anish Kapoor and Jeff Koons.

We hope you enjoy our selection of Château Mouton Rothschild wines while appreciating the art of their iconic label.
