

Lulu's (Low ABV) Day-Drinking Menu

Tsuchinoko

(fruity sake long drink)

The Tsuchinoko is a legendary snake from Japanese folklore, of a shape somewhat like a fat cucumber, but which importantly had an appreciation for alcohol. So what better name for a drink combining Japanese sake and slimy cucumber? A very fresh muddled cocktail getting a rich fruitiness from cantaloupe melon syrup, as well as tomato water, with oddly harmonious flavours. Using a richly flavoured honjozo sake. Served in a collins glass with crushed ice.

Ferdinand's true love

(spicy manzanilla cocktail)

carried all around the pacific by the Spanish during colonial times. Sherry had a hand to play in Ferdinand Magellan's death. Having spent more money on sherry than weapons he then lost his life in a battle in the Philippines, being struck by a bamboo spear. Manzanilla sherry, with tomato water, lime juice, red chilli syrup and fresh coriander, makes for a spicy drink with rich minerality.

Apple of my eye

(silky smooth sake drink)

Building on the apple and pear rich flavours of kizan's nigori sake, with a fennel and pear shrub with a little apple juice, this is a drink you're sure to fall in love with.

Lawrence of Arabia

(sweet fig cocktail)

Just as Lawrence brought the bedouin tribes and the british together in the 1962 epic, so are the rich flavours of caramelised arabian figs & orange zest intertwined with the tangy notes of Lustau Oloroso sherry from Jerez, in the heart of the former moorish kingdom within Spain.

Lulu's Signature drinks...

The Gin Cocktail- Beatrix Kiddo

Based on Japanese KI NO BI gin with its spicy and fruity character, this cocktail takes its name from the protagonist in Tarantino's Kill Bill, with Uma Thurman's fiery character taking revenge on Lucy Lu's in Tokyo. A sour style cocktail with a sencho pepper and honeydew melon shrub which builds on the spicy, fruity flavour of the gin. 140,-

The Shochu Cocktail- Avocolada

Creamy and spicy just like one of our bartenders. Don't miss out on this variation of the famous Piña Colada, with Japanese shochu freshened up by some yuzu, avocado, and of course a little chilli. 130,-

The Umeshu Cocktail- Komako Spritz

Umeshu spritzer named after the classic Japanese novel 'Snow Country's main character. Built with umeshu plum wine, mint, grapefruit zest syrup, lemon and topped with sparkling sake. 120,-

The Sake Cocktail- Tsuchinoko

The Tsuchinoko is a legendary snake from Japanese folklore, looking like a fat cucumber, and with an appreciation for alcohol. A very fresh muddled sake cocktail getting a rich fruitiness from cantaloupe melon syrup & tomato water. 120,-

The Whisky Cocktail- Norwegian

Wood

Murakami's novel 'Norwegian wood' gives its name to this woody and fruity Nikka's Coffey grain whisky, with cinnamon and coconut bitters, lemon juice and a hazelnut & passion fruit syrup. 140,-

The Bi-Weekly Special (Gai-Jin) -

Perfect if you fancy a surprise, the special cocktail is based on focusing on combining Japanese flavours with one country in particular. Or if you would like to know more about what we currently have, feel free to ask.
