THE STORY OF OUR WINE LIST

The Rustic Canyon wine list began as a love letter to California. Santa Monica native Josh Loeb founded the restaurant in 2006 after hosting monthly dinners at his family's home nestled in the Rustic Canyon neighborhood. Some of the most memorable moments and conversations revolved around wine—Josh would open special bottles, craft thoughtful pairings, and friends would discover something new they loved. In curating the opening list, Josh showcased those same boutique wineries whose stories he loved to share and featured beautiful wines from all over the Golden State, with a heavy dose of Pinot Noir (including an entire section dedicated to Williams Selyem, one of his inspirations). It also contained old-world favorites from classic regions such as Tuscany, Burgundy and some serious vintage Bordeaux.

The list has had many caretakers over the years - sommeliers who have left their loving marks, including me. I started as a server at Rustic Canyon weeks after it opened and became the sommelier in 2010. As you flip through the pages, it essentially tells the story of all of those who have cared for it—the types of grape varieties they gravitated to, winemakers who got onto their first restaurant list with us, lesser-known regions that are ripe for discovery and more. I'm grateful to each and every one of them for curating the eclectic, nuanced selection we have today.

These days, we're bringing in wines from small producers from all over the world who practice organic, Biodynamic and regenerative farming, including special love for California. I'm proud to say that this wine list has something for everyone. With our new sommelier Jenna Isaacs on the floor, we hope you'll create some new memories here as you sip on a glass or open something special with loved ones.

Cheers!
Kathryn Coker
Rustic Canyon Family Wine Director and Esters Wine Shop & Bar Co-Owner

WINTER FAVORITES

CHAMPAGNE

NV Agrapart & Fils, "Terroirs" Extra Brut, Champagne, France 175

The NV Extra Brut Blanc de Blancs Grand Cru Terroirs is positively brilliant. Citrus, white flowers, crushed rocks and mint are all finely sketched in this super-expressive Champagne from Agrapart. Readers who want to get a sense of what the Agrapart Champagnes are all about without investing in some of the higher-end bottlings will want to check out the Terroirs. Weightless and chiseled in the glass, with pedigree to burn, the Terroirs is flat-out stunning, not to mention a fabulous wine in its peer group. The Terroirs is sourced from parcels in Avize, Oger, Cramant and Oiry.

LUXURIOUS WHITE

2017 Valentini, Trebbiano d'Abruzzo, Abruzzo, Italy 390

Ask a wine professional about this bottle, and you'll hear qualitative descriptions about its extreme rarity, mythical production process, and reputation as one of the greatest white wines in all of Italy.

Prod a little more, and you'll hear tasting notes like how "it has the intense minerality of Chablis, the structure and savory character of Puligny-Montrachet, and the ripeness of the Maconnais." That's well and good, but all those places are in Burgundy, and this wine comes from central Italy. Valentini is extremely selective of what fruit ends up in their wines. In fact, despite meticulous farming methods across their vineyards, they only keep about 5% of their grapes, selling the rest to other producers. Only using the highest quality grapes promotes consistency and ageability in the resulting wines.

WINTER ROSE

2021 Petinella, Cerasuolo, Abruzzo, Italy 99

This gorgeous dark rose is one of my favorites during fall in California. The color is from red, intense and brilliant. A multi-layer wine with a notable aromatic evolution. 2021 was a particularly hot and dry year, but the wine knows how to maintain a rigorous profile, with the fruit always under trace, in a slow pace of spicy tones, of coffee, then cherry and pomegranate. The mouth is creamy and then grows in an important way in an almost spicy finish, then bittersweet, then nice savory, but also warm and enveloping.

WINTER FAVORITES

COZY REDS

2018 Unti, Cuvee Foudre, Dry Creek Valley, California 147

"Cuvée Foudre comes from three of our finest vineyard blocks: Alban clone Grenache, Tablas Creek clone Mourvedre, and Syrah clones 174/ 877, all planted in 1998 on the winery parcel. These have proven to be our most Rhône-like vineyard blocks. We aggressively reduce the crop during the growing season to facilitate the concentration of aromas, flavors, and structure. All of our vineyards are farmed organically." This gorgeous, full bodied GSM blend represents balance and luxury.

2012 La Jota, Cabernet Sauvignon, Howell Mountain, Napa Valley, California 375

Wine lovers know the name Chris Carpenter well, and winemakers know Chris as "the mountain man". This is a special bottle of cabernet Rustic Canyon was able to aquire in celebration of the winery's 125th anniversary! 2012 was a near perfect vintage, and this cabernet is the perfect expression of Howell Mountain's unique terroir. Howell Mountain is located in the Vaca Mountain Range, and the AVA itself is defined as anything above the 1,400 ft. elevation point on the mountain, so the Howell Mountain appellation is literally a mountain top on the eastern side of Napa Valley!

2008 Caparsa Doccio a Matteo Chianti Riserva, Tuscany, Italy 225

A beautiful, medium bodied, soft wine from an excellent vintage. Paolo Cianferoni took over winemaking at his family's 12 hectare property in 1982. The winery is organic certified, both in the fields and in the cellar. Sangiovese is the main grape in Caparsa, which is located in Radda in Chianti area, maybe one of the most charming and beautiful areas in the world and one of the highest quality wines production areas too.
