RIESLING

When we talk of German riesling we often think of how sweet it is, what's often forgotten is the fact that riesling is high in acidity and needs some sugar for balance. When balanced perfectly the wines are stunningly aromatic, refreshing, complex and majestic.

CHENIN BLANC

Anyone who loves wine, loves a chenin blanc. The queen of the Loire Valley and South Africa is a wine of many expressions, though you can be guaranteed that she is playful and indulgent.

JURA & JURA INSPIRED

One of the intriguing things about Jura wines is the technique of sous-voile, or under-the-veil wine making, a style in which wine is intentionally oxidised. The barrels are not entirely filled to begin with and then are not topped up as the wine evaporates and seeps into the wood. A beneficial layer of yeast (the veil) is encouraged, somewhat akin to the flor in Sherry. Handled well, the resulting wine is utterly mouth-watering flavours of perfumed fruit with underlying nutty tones.

The man who falls in love with pinot noir understands what Richard Burton saw in Elizabeth Taylor.
It can be infuriating and it's going to cost you a lot of money, but when it's good there's nothing else quite like it.

DOMAINE PRIEURE-ROCHE, GRAND VINS DE BOURGOGNE

Vignerons, Henry Frederic Roch and Yannick Champ certainly don't consider themselves wine 'makers' as such, but rather custodians who manage a natural process. In humility, they allow their Grand Vins de Bourgogne to develop and express the terroir and vines from where they're born all the while protecting the developing beverage from any risks that may lead to an unbalance. Proudly, they defend the tastes born of their soils, since originality in a wine is to be enjoyed just as its vintage dictates.

Nobody does it better!!

Widely known as DRC, Domaine de la Romanee-Conti is the most famous producer in Burgundy. It has an array of vineyards (and a reputation) that are second to none. An opinion supported by the longevity of their wines, as well as the prices they fetch on the secondary market. Rarer than a hen's tooth.

ROCKFORD WINES, BAROSSA VALLEY

Rockford wines was founded in the early 1980's by Robert O'Callaghan and is now one of Australia's more prestigious wineries. Robert's success is largely born from simplicity in his philosophy and sticking to traditional winemaking techniques. Which makes sense, since he will be quick to tell you that he comes from an era when things were made to last.

JIM BARRY, CLARE VALLEY

The Armagh is a single vineyard shiraz first made in 1985 from unirrigated, low-yielding vines planted in 1968. The 8-acre block is called 'Armagh', being named by the Irish after their homelands. The resultant old-vine shiraz is rich and deep and unmistakably from the little patch of terroir.

Alfred Percy Birks 'AP Birks', along with one of his brothers, are responsible for its humble beginnings in 1982. From there, its legend has only grown, to the point where it is said that someone must simply die before you will be allowed to join their mailing list.
