Champagne / Balboa vs Creed

Champagne is dominated by larger Champagne houses that mostly purchase grapes from grape growers. This has been the trend until recently, but now we see that more and more grape growers start to make their own Champagne. We refer to these Champagnes as Grower Champagne. Here at Ferdinand Vinrum, we have decided to showcase these in the hope that you will find something new and exciting!

P.S. Find the imposter on the list.

Chenin Blanc & Sauvignon Blanc / Snowflakes in a snowstorm

Learn to love Chenin Blanc! This fantastic grape has its home in Loire, France. It comes in all shapes and sizes. You will find characteristics like quince, pear and honeysuckle backed up by a refreshing acidity. You start to find a healthy amount of Chenin Blanc in other countries like South Africa and USA. Back in Loire, the partner in crime for Chenin Blanc is Sauvignon Blanc. Wines based on Sauvignon Blanc will give you plenty of freshness and a truckload of minerality.

All of it! / Around the world, around the world / Vol. 2

Yes its the same text as above but don't focus on that, focus on the wines!!

Ok, there has never been a better time to be a wine drinker. You find such an immense diversity of styles and grapes. Ferdinand want to celebrate this fact so below will you find our small selection of wines from all over the world. The wines vary a great deal in style so if you are unsure ask the bearded man in the apron for help!

Nebbiolo & Sangiovese / The dynamic duo of Italy

Italy is home to a whole universe worth of indigenous grape varieties. The famous wine critic Ian d'Agata has devoted a whole book just to the grapes of Italy (a proper page turner). The unrivalled kings of grapes in Italy are Sangiovese and Nebbiolo. In Tuscany you will find Sangiovese in all shapes and sizes from the lighter styles of Chianti to fuller ones from Brunellos. Nebbiolo is found among the misty hills of Piemonte. The most talked about examples are from Barolo and Barbaresco. P.S Please for god sake don't ignore the other fantastic grapes of Italy!

Syrah and Friends

We are absolute Syrah fanatics, no doubt! So in my book you can't have too many of them. On this page, will you find some of my favourite examples of this amazing grape. Syrah has a whole entourage of grapes like Grenache, Mourvedre, and Cinsault, back in Rhône Valley. These other grapes produce fantastic examples of wines. The one in particular that steals the show is Grenache. All of these grapes have started to pop up all over the world and the result is great!

Cabernet Sauvignon and co/ King of the hill

Cabernet Sauvignon has always been in the spotlight as the heavyweight of heavyweights among grapes. The region that perfected Cabernet Sauvignon is the region of Bordeaux. Here, you find the pinnacle of Cabernet Sauvignon according to many, but if you ask the Americans, they will argue that Napa Valley is the best. To be fair, Bordeaux got its ass kicked in a comparative tasting in 1973 that showed the world that Cabernet Sauvignon could thrive outside of Bordeaux. Let's not forget the other beautiful grapes on this page. You will find Cabernet Franc, the lighter and green-peppered cousin to Cabernet Sauvignon that has its home in Loire. Merlot is also present, a more mellow and gentle grape variety.
