BRAT POUR

Our monthly focus on a single producer's wine.

Celler del Roure, is a personal project of winemaker Pablo Calatayud, whose vineyards are located in Moixenet, Valencia. In the last decade he invested a lot of energy in restoring the 17th century underground cellars with the original amphorae, which he uses for fermentation and ageing. He focuses on reviving almost extinct varieties like Mando and Verdil as well as working with Monastrell, Macabeo, PX and Chardonnay. Safrà is a blend of Mandó, the principal indigenous grape of this part of Valencia, with a small amount of Garnacha Tintorera. It's a wine that shows the pure character of the region without any makeup, with a little bit of rusticity. The balance of fruit, spice and acidity make this very drinkable and very moreish.

SHERRY

While sherry is often ignored by the larger wine-drinking populace, even an entry-level fino from a great producer shows an astoundingly nuanced and complex character. In today's market where many of the world's finest wines have become prohibitively expensive, sherry still represents one of the wine world's great bargains, as well as being one of the most versatile wines when it comes to food.

UNDER THE FLOR

Flor is the mysterious layer of yeast that lies on top of some sherry wine while they age in barrel. Fino and Manzanilla spend their entire maturation under flor, whereas Amontillado and Palo Cortado begin their lives under flor, being exposed to oxygen once it breaks. These differences make for a diverse and delicious range of sherry styles. The flavours imparted are unlike anything else in the wine world, saline in character with notes of sea spray, almonds, and mediterranean herbs.

Emilio Hidalgo, Amontillado Viejo 'Tresill 1874'; Jerez, Spain NV, 750ml	143

OXIDATIVE

Sherries that are aged with gentle and controlled exposure to oxygen in the absence of flor are typically richer in texture, displaying flavours of walnuts, leather, bitter chocolate, and exotic spices.
