Wine and Food

*A good food and wine pairing is a pairing that is greater than the sum of it's parts.
With this in mind, the following selection seeks to uncloak new aspects of each element, and add a further dimension to the dining experience.*

Our Champagne

We have chosen to pour André Jacquart as our house champagne. Based in Vertus, in the Côte des Blancs, the family owns 24 hectares of premium cru and grand cru champagne terroir.

Fifth generation winemaker, Marie Doyard, favours barrel ferment, long lees ageing and low dosage. The resulting wines balance tension and minerality with richness and generosity.

These are terroir specific wines, from a true Champagne Grower.

Nicolas Joly

Based within Savennières in the Loire Valley, Nicolas Joly is somewhat of a hero within the world of biodynamic winemaking. Planted in 1130 by Cistercian monks, the Clos de la Coulée de Serrant monopole forms the heart of the estate. Here, grapes are harvested late, over several weeks or months, and produce wines that are powerful and complex. These wines are now made by his daughter, Virginie Joly, and exemplify what is truly great about Chenin Blanc.

Not Quite Nouveau

Perhaps inspired by the wines of Beaujolais, the below share a common theme. Light maceration & carbonic fermentation make for silky tannins & aromatic, juicy fruit. Delightfully quaffable. Served Chilled.
