Our Champagne

Our House pour here at Sixpenny is the Larmandier-Bernier. This is a Grower Champagne from the Village of Vertus, a wine from the Cote des Blanc sub-region.

A wine formally called 'Tradition', a name chosen by Pierre's parents in the 1970's Latitude symbolizes the vineyard plots coming all from a Single latitude with which these grapes are picked in Southen Vertus, this translates to a richer and a more vinous expression in the Growers range.

This wine is a Blanc de Blanc, made exclusively from the Chardonnay grape, and the Reserve of this wine spans back to the great 2004 Vintage which add's depth and complexity to the final blend.

This wine has 40% Reserve wines with a total dosage of 4g/L

Based within Savennières in the Loire Valley, Nicolas Joly is somewhat of a hero within the world of biodynamic winemaking. Planted in 1130 by Cistercian monks, the Clos de la Coulée de Serrant monopole forms the heart of the estate. Here, grapes are harvested late, over several weeks or months, and produce wines that are powerful and complex. These wines are now made by his daughter, Virginie Joly, and exemplify what is truly great about Chenin Blanc.
